Summary

Shanghai Hansheng Law Firm is a full-time lawyer and serves as the Deputy Minister of the Commercial Dispute Resolution Committee. Having years of legal work experience in judicial organs, I have accumulated a large amount of practical experience in the field of civil and commercial disputes since my employment. I am skilled in handling various types of property disputes, expropriation and demolition disputes, contract affairs, civil lending disputes, company legal affairs disputes, etc., and have gained high recognition from clients.

Practice performance:

- I have served as a legal advisor to a government unit, multiple communities, and private enterprises, handling various legal affairs for the consulting unit and accumulating rich experience in legal advisory work. I have accumulated rich litigation experience by representing multiple sales contract disputes, loan contract disputes, construction project construction contract disputes, tort liability disputes, leasing contracts, representing multiple labor disputes, online shopping contract disputes, etc. I have provided legal services such as consulting, issuing legal opinions, conducting due diligence, and drafting agreements for the equity transfer of multiple companies.
